

CreekSpeak! 2009

Nature, Art, and Culture in the Putah Creek Watershed

CreekSpeak! is a 6-month series of inspiring talks with corresponding thematically-linked outings in the Putah Creek Watershed. All talks and outings are free and open to the public.

Thursday Talks

All talks are held in the Winters Community Center, 201 Railroad Ave, from 7:00-8:30 PM.

Saturday Outings

Explore on your own or join an organized outing.
See www.putahcreekcouncil.org for information about locations, times, or how to join.

May 14: Art of the Putah Creek Watershed
David Robertson, Photographer & UC Davis English Dept

May 16: Creating Art in the Watershed
On your own at Stebbins Cold Canyon Reserve or join an activity

June 11: Indoor and Outdoor Learning at Lake Solano Park
Dan Sykes, Solano County Parks, Manager

June 13: Celebrate National Outdoors Day
Explore your watershed by visiting Lake Solano Park

July 9: Urban Runoff and Putah Creek
Loren Oki, UC Davis Plant Sciences Dept.

July 11: Native Plants and Drip Irrigation
Led by Marion Adams at the Center for Land-Based Learning

August 13: Putah Creek Fish Stories
Garrick Chang, Putah Creek Trout

August 15: Go Fishing in the Watershed
Lake Solano and Yolo County Fishing Access sites

September 10: Restoration Activities along Putah Creek
Chris Rose, Director, Solano Resource Conservation District

September 19: Coastal Cleanup Day: A Global Event
Join hundreds of local volunteers at sites along Putah Creek

October 8: The Serpentine Character of the Upper Putah Creek Watershed
Susan Harrison, UC Davis Environmental Science & Policy Dept.

October 10: Hiking in the Upper Watershed
Led by Andrew Fulks, Yolo Hiker

<http://johnmuir.ucdavis.edu/events/creekspeak.html>

Creek Speak! is presented by UC Davis John Muir Institute of the Environment,
Putah Creek Council, City of Winters, and the Putah Creek Discovery Corridor Cooperative